

TOP

Museums

Bozeman, MT

by Terrence O'Neil

Bozeman, Montana, is rich in history and culture, and its museums reflect this vibrant heritage. From exploring dinosaur fossils to diving into the history of computing, these museums offer a wide range of educational and entertaining experiences for visitors of all ages.

Here's a list of the top five museums in Bozeman, including a highlight from each and a link to their websites for more information.

Museum of the Rockies

600 W Kagy Blvd, Bozeman, MT 59717

Renowned for its extensive collection of dinosaur fossils, including a full-scale T-Rex skeleton. Also features regional history exhibits, a planetarium, and changing exhibits from around the world. Must-see: The Siebel Dinosaur Complex.

Gallatin History Museum

Located in a former county jail, this museum offers a glimpse into Gallatin County's heritage with exhibits on Native American history, old Fort Ellis, and more. Must-see: The historical jail cells and gallows.

317 W Main St Bozeman, MT 59715

American Computer and Robotics Museum

Showcases the history of computing and robotics with artifacts ranging from ancient clay tablets to modern technology. Must-see: The original Apple 1 computer signed by Steve Wozniak.

2023 Stadium Dr #1a, Bozeman, MT 59715

Children's Museum of Bozeman

202 S Willson Ave., Bozeman, MT 59715

Provides hands-on exhibits and activities focused on science, technology, engineering, art, and math (STEAM). Must-see: The STEAMlab with various interactive projects.

Bozeman Art Museum

2612 W Main St Suite B, Bozeman, MT 59718

The only fine arts museum in Bozeman, offering changing exhibits and educational programs. Must-see: The diverse rotating art exhibits featuring local and international artists.

These museums provide a rich and varied experience, perfect for anyone looking to explore the history, culture, and artistic heritage of Bozeman.